Livernois Road to close under I-75 Saturday night in Oakland County for new bridge deck concrete pour

Fast facts:

- Starting at 9 p.m. Saturday, June 6, crews will close both directions of Livernois Road under I-75.
- Livernois Road will reopen to traffic by 9 a.m. Sunday, June 7.
- The closure is required to allow crews to pour a new concrete deck on the bridge that carries southbound I-75 over Livernois Road.

June 4, 2020 -- Weather permitting, Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT) contracting crews will be closing both directions of Livernois Road under I-75 to pour a new bridge deck starting at 9 p.m. Saturday, June 6. This closure will remain in place until 9 a.m. Sunday, June 7.

Currently, both directions of I-75 have two lanes open with all traffic using the northbound side of the freeway, separated by a temporary concrete barrier, between Adams and 13 Mile roads. I-75 traffic is not expected to be impacted by this closure.

During the closure, detours will be posted in each direction using Big Beaver, Maple, and Crooks roads.
